

Kids' Connect Weekly

Wednesday March 25

Do you have friends or people in your life that make fun of you for living for God? Maybe you just want to do what everyone else is doing even though you know it isn't what you know God would want you to do. It can be hard not to do what everyone around us is doing even though we know it isn't the right choice.

Fearing what people will do, say, or think is a trap! Trust in God.

Live only for Him because He always loves, forgives, and cares for you.

People can't change that.

Get in the Word...

1 Thessalonians 4:1

1 Peter 5:10

John 3:21

Main Verse:

"Fearing people is a dangerous trap, but trusting the Lord means safety." Proverbs 29:25 NLT

Review Questions:

1. Think of a time you worried about what other people thought of you. Talk about it if you want to.
2. How is trusting God better than worrying about what people think?

God never changes and wants the best for you. People change their minds and not always want the best for you.

3. Why should we live our lives for God? Because He is our Creator and Savior
4. Why is living for God so hard? Answers may vary. living for God can be hard sometimes cause we just want people to like us.
5. Daniel almost died because he was willing to obey God instead of people. Would you be willing to obey God even though someone might not like you. Answers may vary
6. What is one thing you can do to obey God that makes you worry about what people will think? Answers may vary
7. How is trusting God better than worrying about what people think? God never changes, and He always wants the best for you.

Activities:

"In the Den"

Although he had faith in God, Daniel would have been terrified going in to the lions' den. Illustrate the story with a game by having one child (or even a parent) play a sleeping lion. With their back to the other children and their eyes closed, place a small beanbag (or rolled up sock) behind them. Everyone else will quietly sneak up on the lion without waking him to try and get the beanbag. You must grab it and take it back to the starting line without the lion catching you. Get a bean bag back to the starting line to earn a point.

Don't forget to pray!

Take the time to talk about things that you could pray about and then take turns praying out loud. Don't forget to thank God for the blessings and joys in your life.

Friendship Bread Beads: =

Making GOOD friends is important!

Today, make special friendship beads that you can use to create something for a friend. Keep it for when you get to see them again or share over video chat as you stay connected.
