I'm well-known because God knows me well.

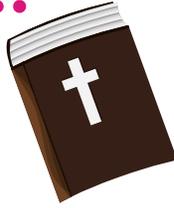

You don't have to be famous to other people to be somebody who matters. You are already well-known by God, and that's all that matters.

You don't need recognition from others; God always sees you and always hears you.

Get in the Word...

- 1 Corinthians 8:3
- John 10:14
- John 10:27

Main Verse:

"I knew you before I formed you in your mother's womb. Before you were born I set you apart."

Jeremiah 1:5 NLT

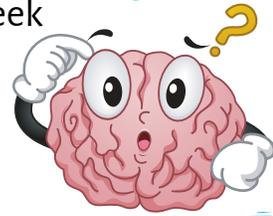

Review Questions:

1. Where did God form (or create) you?
(In your mother's womb; in her tummy.)
2. Is it more important to be well-known by God or by famous people?
(Answers will vary.)
3. What do you think God knows about you?
(Answers will vary.)
4. What do you think about the fact that God knew you before He made you?
(Answers will vary.)
5. God knows you and wants you to know Him! What do you think you can do this week to get to know Him better?
(Answers will vary. (Pray, read the Bible, listen to worship music, etc.))

Activity:

"God Knows" Ball Toss

Don't forget to pray!

All you need for this activity is a ball that you can toss around!

Sit in a circle with your family and/or friends. One person starts with the ball and says "God knows..." followed by their name. They then throw the ball to someone else. The person who catches the ball says "God knows..." followed by their name and the first person's name. They then toss the ball to the next person who has to say "God knows..." followed by their name as well the previously mentioned names. This continues until everyone has gone or someone misses a name; then you need to start over.

TIP: if saying names is too easy, try saying something else! You can say "God knows..." and then say something about yourself, then the next person does the same and the game continues in that fashion!

Extra ... "Hope Booklets"

Gather some cardstock or pieces of paper and cut them into squares. On each piece (which you can decorate with stickers, drawings, glitter, or anything you want!) write something to give you encouragement when you're feeling down or inadequate. Put a hole in the corner of the papers using a hole punch and tie them together with some string (or staple them). Keep your "Hope Booklet" somewhere you won't forget so you can read it anytime to give yourself some encouragement!

SUGGESTIONS:

"God has a plan for me." "God gives me strength!"

"Trust means knowing I'm in God's arms."
